MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 14

ONE OF A POSSE KILLED.—There is great excitement in the neighborhood of Paw Paw, W. Va., a few miles east of Cumberland, Md., over the killing of Millard White, of Wheeling, one of a posse who started from Paw Paw Friday night to punish a guilty couple. The tragedy occurred at a point on Timber Ridge, some distance from the town of Paw Paw. About a week ago Mrs. Wallace, aged about thirty years, left her husband and went to live with a man named Miller. The neighbors notified the couple to leave the locality, but Miller and his new companion refused to do so. This enraged the neighborhood that a posse of men, among whom was Mr. Wallace, the deserted husband of the woman, started to the house where Miller and the woman were living together, for the purpose of tarring and feathering the couple. Among the men in the posse was Millard White, who was in that locality attending the funeral of his mother, who died a few days ago. White was persuaded by the party to accompany them to the house. The party arrived at the house about ten o'clock Friday night. White was the first of the posse to enter. Miller sprang from his bed, seized a double-barreled shot gun, which was loaded with buckshot, and killed White instantly. The balance of the party fled after hearing the shot fired, which gave Miller a chance to make good his escape, and from last accounts he had not been captured, although a large crowd are searching the country for him.

LEAVING THE ASSEMBLY THAT ORDERED THE STRIKE.—The New York Brewers' Union met yesterday. The members were outspoken against the leaders of District Assembly 49 and said they could not understand why the brewers, of all the trades, had been ordered to help bolster a foolish cause at the eleventh hour, which "49" had vainly ordered them to do. Mr. Herbrandt, the Secretary of National Brewers' Union, expressed the belief that the strike had been woefully mismanaged from the start, and it was deemed to disastrous collapse from its inception. The brewers would not strike because they were earning good wages, and would not risk these advantages, besides breaking their contract, when the result would only be addition to the common loss. Resolutions embodying these opinions were adopted, and this action was supplemented by an official determination that the brewer's organization should withdraw its delegates from District 49—which is, practically, secession from that body. The beer drivers' organization, at a meeting at the same hall later in the day, took action identical with that of the Brewers' Union.

Another Life Saved.
About two years ago a prominent citizen of Chicago was told by his physicians that he must die. There said his system was so debilitated that there was nothing left to build on. He made up his mind to try a "new departure." He got some of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and took it according to directions. He began to improve at once. He kept up the treatment for some months, and is today a well man. He says the "Discovery" saved his life.
